

Community Services Qualification Review

Maintaining pace with a growing sector

The Community Services Qualification Review will evaluate and update 5 community services qualifications, units of competency and skills sets to enhance their relevance and assist the sector's capacity to meet growing demand and evolving challenges.

The review will ensure training products address emerging approaches such as trauma-informed care, cultural competence and person-centred practice along with skills in collaboration and co-design with service users.

The qualifications being reviewed are the CHC22015 Certificate II in Community Services, CHC 32015 Certificate III in Community Services, CHC42015 Certificate IV in Community Services, CHC52021 Diploma of Community Services, and CHC62015 Advanced Diploma of Community Sector Management.

Benefits of being involved

Your involvement in the project is important and will:

- ensure qualifications align with current industry needs
- ensure regulatory requirements, safety and wellbeing outcomes are met
- create clear and sustainable career pathways to support existing and future growth.

How to get involved

Please visit humanability.com.au to find out more about the project and to register for project alerts, updates and consultation opportunities.

Webpage: Community Services Qualification Review

There will be a range of activities during the consultation period such as workshops, interviews and meetings.